Sir,

James More.

With reference to your letter No. 783 dated May 30 no trace can be found of James More. Enquiries at No. 84 Bubbling Well Road show that no person bearing this name has lived there since December 1, 1928, approximately, when the house came into possession of the present proprietress.

Enquiries are being continued and any information obtained regarding More's whereabouts will be immediately communicated to you.

Yours faithfully,

for Commissioner of Police.

Consul General for Italy,
Shanghai.

Sir,

It came to my notice that a certain James More -84 Bubbling Well Road -is pretending to be an Italian subject. As the same is quite unknown to this Consulate General, I would ask that he be requested by the Police to show his papers and, in case of his appearing to be Italian and the Police having any suspect upon his identity, that he be accompanied to this Consular Office for further investigations.
